PEOPLE OF OMAHA GREET ROOSEVELT

Given Usual Welcome and Spent Strenuous Day Among Nebraskans.

DELIVERED THREE SPEECHES

Colonel Told Something of His Travels and Was Cheered by Enthusiastic Crowds—Spoke Good Word for Burkett.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 2.—The people of Omaha gave Theodore Roosevelt a day of comparative rest today. All that he did was attend a breakfast given by the Roosevelt Reception Committee, a luncheon at the Field Club, a dinner at the Omaha Club, an entertainment given by the board of governors of the Ak-Sar-Ben, which is the official boomer club of Omaha; take an automobile ride, make three speeches, and talk with numerous political leaders and old friends whom he met here.

The colonel found time during the day to speak good word for Senator Burkett, who is in the midst of a spirited campaign for reelection.

The people of Omaha did not turn out in such numbers as was the case in several other cities which Col. Roosevelt visited on his present trip. The auditorium was jammed and the crowd in the street outside was so great that Col. Roosevelt had to use the tactics of a football player to get through the throng to his automobile.

It was at the auditorium where he made his principal speech of the day, that Col. Roosevelt commended the work of Senator Burkett. The senator had obtained the Republican nomination and Congressman Hitchcock, the Democratic nomination. Under the Nebraska law the people will vote for a Senator at the Fall election and the members of the Legislature are obligated to elect the candidate who receives the highest number of votes.

Senator Burkett introduced Col. Roosevelt. He described the colonel as "the man who was once the first citizen of the Nation, and is now the greatest man in the world." There was loud applause.

Col. Roosevelt proceeded with his speech in which he spoke of the Panama Canal and the navy. He said that the trip of the American fleet around the world increased greatly the prestige of this country, and that the work which is being done on the canal is one of the greatest and most important of all ages. He took issue with the plan which was placed before Congress at the last session of neutralizing the canal zone, and in strongest terms declared that this country should fortify the canal.

Col. Roosevelt spoke as follows: "In traveling in Europe last Spring one thing which especially struck me was the fact that the two fleets which made the deepest impression abroad were the cruise of the battle fleet around the world, and the digging of the Panama Canal. These were the two feats to be credited to the American people during the past decade, which had most profoundly and favorably affected foreign judgment of America during that time. Such judgment depends not in the least upon what people say they can do, but on what they actually do; upon their willingness to meet responsibilities, and the success of their efforts to meet them.

Now, there is no use of a nation claiming to be a great nation unless it is prepared to play a great part. A nation such as ours cannot possibly play a great part in international affairs, cannot expect to be treated as a weight in either the Atlantic or the Pacific, or to have its voice as to the Monroe Doctrine, or the management of the Panama Canal, heeded, unless it has a strong and thoroughly efficient navy. Within the last decade the American navy has been about trebled in strength, and much more than trebled in efficiency, due to its extraordinary progress in marksmanship and maneuvering. So far from this increase in naval strength representing on our part either a menace of aggression to weaker nations or a menace of war to stronger nations, it has told most powerfully for peace.

Everywhere in Europe the cruise of the battle fleet around the world was accepted, not only as an extraordinary feat, reflecting the highest honor upon our navy, but as one of the movements which tended markedly to promote peaceful stability in international relations. No nation regarded the cruise as fraught with any menace of hostility to itself; and yet every nation accepted it as a proof that we were not only desirous ourselves to keep the peace, but able to prevent the peace being broken at our expense. No cruise in any way approaching it has ever been made by any fleet of any other power, and the best naval opinion abroad has been that no such feat was possible, that is, that no such cruise as that we actually made could be undertaken by a fleet of such size without innumerable breakdowns and accidents. The success of the cruise performed as it was without a single accident, immeasurably raised the prestige, not only of our fleet, but of our Nation, and was a distinct help to the cause of international peace.

DR. HOLMES NAMED BY TAFT

Director of the Bureau of Mines in Washington—To Geologist of North Carolina for Three Years.

Noted Speakers at Concluding Sessions of Providence Convention.

Many Notable Features Marked Last Day of Convention—Engineers on Boston-Key West Project Made a Statement.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 2.—President Taft tonight announced the appointment of Joseph Austin Holmes, of the Geological Survey, as director of the new Bureau of Mines at Washington. Dr. Holmes had been selected for the place some time ago, but his appointment was held up. It is understood here, on the ground that Secretary Ballinger, under whose department the place was almost unanimously, it came from the mine operators and the miners' organizations alike. The purpose of the new bureau is to investigate and report upon safety appliances to prevent the awful waste of life annually.

The bureau will also make an investigation looking to the improvement of methods of mining. Mr. Holmes is a native of South Carolina. For ten years he was professor of geology and natural history at the University of North Carolina, and from 1891 to 1904 was State Geologist of North Carolina. President Taft is contemplating any day the removal of Mr. Hitchcock from the position of Secretary of the Interior, and Mr. Holmes is probably will issue soon after his return to Washington from Beverly an executive order putting all postmasters and the permanent clerks at the money order postoffices under the Civil Service. Postmaster General Hitchcock recommended this step to the President some time ago and he has been considering it. Today the President talked the matter over with R. H. Dana, president of the National Civic Service Reform League. Mr. Taft will take the question up with his cabinet the latter part of this month and finally dispose of it. Mr. Hitchcock thinks the order will work a great improvement in the postal service.

President Taft has a long list of matters to take up with his cabinet advisers. He will reach Washington September 21st for a ten-days' stay and the cabinet will be in practically continuous session September 26, 27 and 28. All the members of the cabinet, whose families are still out of town, will be the President's guests at a "stag" party at the White House.

One of the principal subjects to be discussed will be the forthcoming appointment of Mr. Taft to the Supreme Court. Mr. Taft will have to fill the vacancies created by the death of Chief Justice Fuller and the prospective retirement of Associate Justice Moody. It seems pretty well settled that the revenues have not enabled the management to operate and maintain the road up to the needs of the public nor to install improvements which were desired. Other witnesses for the Wabash Railroad will take the stand tomorrow, and the hearing probably will be adjourned for several weeks to permit the engineers to take the cruise of the railroads in the official classification territory, which is set for September 7th.

CLASH AT RATE HEARING.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Frequent clashes between attorneys for the railroads and those for the shippers, marked today's hearing before the examiners for the Interstate Commerce Commission over the proposed advance of freight rates on certain commodities.

Attorney E. B. Petre, of the Rock Island Railway, clashed with Attorney B. J. James, attorney for a group of shippers, resenting a suggestion that statistics had been omitted by the controller of the road for an ulterior purpose.

At the conclusion of the testimony by Comptroller N. A. of the Rock Island Railway, Henry Miller, vice-president and general manager of the Wabash Railroad Company, was called and examined by Attorney N. S. Brown, counsel for the road. Mr. Miller testified that the revenues have not enabled the management to operate and maintain the road up to the needs of the public nor to install improvements which were desired. Other witnesses for the Wabash Railroad will take the stand tomorrow, and the hearing probably will be adjourned for several weeks to permit the engineers to take the cruise of the railroads in the official classification territory, which is set for September 7th.

SIGHTED SUNKEN VESSEL.

Schooner Reports Wrecked Vessel off Cape Fear.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 2.—A statement was given out today by Inspector Field of the Sixth Lighthouse District to the effect that Capt. B. W. Johnson, of the schooner Atlantic, reported having passed on August 31st, the wreck of a three-masted schooner, sunk in fourteen feet of water, about 20 miles southwest of Hatteras light vessel. The schooner's main and mizzen topmasts were above the water. The indications were that the vessel had been sunk by collision.

GOV. ANSEL SHOWS INTEREST

Many Notable Features Marked Last Day of Convention—Engineers on Boston-Key West Project Made a Statement.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 2.—After listening to addresses by Governor Adam J. Pothier, of Rhode Island; Governor M. F. Ansel, of South Carolina; Commander Robert E. Peary, Captain J. C. Cantwell, of the United States Revenue Service, and Congressman Adin B. Capron, of Rhode Island, the third annual convention of the Atlantic Deepwaterways Association adjourned after noon today.

The Bowman woman, however, was placed in jail, suspected of having had a hand in the shooting of the officer. Late yesterday Christian was brought back here from Dothan, Ala., where he was captured. He and the Bowman woman were led from the jail with ropes around their necks, but no effort was made to ascertain last night what the mob did with them.

The coroner's verdict was that the negroes met death "at the hands of unknown parties."

FATAL JAPANESE FLOODS. More Than 1,000 Lives Lost—200,000 Are Homeless.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 2.—The loss of life in the Japanese floods exceeded 1,000 according to advices brought by the steamer Antiochus, which arrived from Yokohama today. The official list for fifteen prefectures shows the dead or missing to total 1,113. More than 130,000 houses were flooded and wrecked, 3,593 being swept away. More than 50,000 acres of land were flooded and 200,000 persons are homeless and receiving relief. Among the victims were the members of the family of Mr. Konko, president of the Japan Yacht Club, who were drowned when his villa was demolished.

The great floods were followed by violent storms at sea in which several Japanese steamers were wrecked. The steamer Hokuroku Maru was lost in the Suruga straight, with all hands, on August 13th. The Eliriki Maru, laden with coal, foundered off Nikkima, her captain and several other being drowned.

Two schooners also foundered, a majority of those on board swimming ashore.

MAYNARD-YOUNG CONTEST.

Candidates Must Abide by Decision of the Committee.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 2.—The Democratic District Committee by a vote of three to two decided today that both Congressman Harry L. Maynard, of Portsmouth, and William A. Young, of Norfolk, must agree to abide by the result, if the contest filed by Maynard against the face of the returns of the recent primaries for the Congressional nomination is taken up. Mr. Young signed at once, but counsel for Mr. Maynard announced that in view of all the circumstances surrounding the case the Congressman would not sign and would leave all arbitration of his case to the people of the Second Virginia district at the polls in November.

Unless upon reassembling the committee should adopt a resolution of adjournment, the contest will proceed in a short time. The investigation proceeded anyway, the certificate of nomination will go to Mr. Young. His majority on the face of the returns was 45 votes. It looks now as though there would be three candidates in the general election in November—Young and Maynard, Democrats, and H. H. Rumble, Republican.

Spent it at the Beach. Labor Day. 25 cents round trip from any part of the city.

WARDEN DIED DURING FIRE.

Head of Indiana State Prison Victim of Heart Failure.

Michigan City, Ind., Sept. 2.—During a fire at the Indiana State prison here tonight Warden James D. Reid dropped dead of heart trouble. The fire which started in a store room among some rags, presumably from spontaneous combustion was suppressed before much damage was done.

Warden Reid was one of the most noted prison men in the country. He became head of the prison on November 1st, 1901, coming from South Bend, Ind. His age was 52 years.

SHOOT GIRL AND SELF.

Attempted to Kill Because She Spurned Him—Love Tragedy.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 2.—Because she refused to marry B. E. Poole, her uncle, Viola Poole, aged 15 years, was shot and probably fatally injured at her home here today. After shooting the girl Poole attempted to kill himself, but his wound is not a serious one. Poole, who is about 35 years old, had been in love with the girl for some time, but she had always repulsed his advances.

MOB LYNCHED MAN AND WOMAN

Slayers of Deputy Sheriff Taken From Jail at Graceville, Fla., and Shot. Bodies Found Dangling From a Trestle.

Graceville, Fla., Sept. 2.—Dangling from a trestle just outside the town this morning were the bodies of Ed Christian, a negro charged with shooting Deputy Sheriff Allen Burns, and Hattie Bowman, a negress, who had been arrested on the charge of being implicated in the crime.

The negroes were taken from the local jail last night by a mob which had little trouble in overpowering the guards.

Several days ago a warrant was sworn out for Christian, charging him with the theft of a watch from a local physician. When Officer Burns, accompanied by the physician, went to Christian's home to make the arrest, his call for Christian to come out, was greeted from within by a volley of shots, one bullet striking Burns in the breast and another in the arm. His condition is considered critical.

As soon as the physician spread the news, posers were organized to capture Christian. But he had made good his escape.

The Bowman woman, however, was placed in jail, suspected of having had a hand in the shooting of the officer. Late yesterday Christian was brought back here from Dothan, Ala., where he was captured. He and the Bowman woman were led from the jail with ropes around their necks, but no effort was made to ascertain last night what the mob did with them.

CLOAKMAKERS WIN AND STRIKE ENDS

Manufacturers Granted Concessions to 70,000 Garment Workers.

BRANDEIS GIVEN THE CREDIT

Settlement Saves Thousands on Point of Eviction—Strike Notable for Its Peacefulness—Articles of Agreement.

New York, Sept. 2.—The cloakmakers' strike, one of the greatest industrial disturbances in the history of American labor, was settled tonight. Seventy-thousand garment workers, who have been idle for nine weeks, will shortly return to work. Ten thousand of them and those dependent on them—50,000 souls in all—were on the point of eviction, and hundreds have already been forced on to the streets. The industrial loss to employers and employees has run high into the millions. In loss of wages alone the total has been estimated at more than $10,000,000, while the loss to manufacturers, jobbers and retailers the country over has been computed times that amount.

In spite of the stupendous readjustment involved, the strike has been, in the main, notable for its peacefulness.

Julius Henry Cohen, counsel for the Manufacturers' Association, describes the agreement signed by him and representatives of the strikers in this sentence:

"No principal has been surrendered by the manufacturers, yet the union may truly claim they have won a great victory for their people. The manufacturers believe in the union and the principle that all who desire its benefits should share in its burdens."

One essential of this victory, and one important not only to the strikers, but to the nation at large, which weens their nation to the nation of all contract work at home. Hereafter garments made in New York will be manufactured under sanitary conditions. There will be no more sweatshops.

The rock on which all previous efforts at mutual conciliation have split has been the "closed shop." That dock has now been avoided by the adoption of the "preferential union shop" idea, for which Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, formerly counsel for Glavis in the Pinchot-Ballinger hearing, is given full credit.

REGULARS TAKE HONORS.

On Briggs' Regimental Team Match Event Yesterday.

Seagriff, N. J., Sept. 2.—Honors in the Briggs' regimental team match and in the all-comers military match at 800 yards were captured by the "regulars" in the rifle tournament today, the men from the 15th United States Infantry taking both matches. The Keystone match at 800 yards was won by A. Tyro, W. Reynolds, of Manassas, N. J., who made the phenomenal score of 27 consecutive bulls eyes. The new Jersey State Rifle Association match at 600 yards was won by Lieut. Col. W. A. Tewes, of New Jersey. Lieut. Col. Tewes made 12 consecutive bulls eyes.

In the 800 yard all-comers military match, Sergeant H. A. Whitaker, U. S. Infantry, made nineteen consecutive bulls eyes; Lieut. Rutherford, U. S. Infantry had 17 while Corporal Reilly also a regular infantryman had 16.

The fifteenth U. S. Infantry won the Briggs trophy match, shot at 200, 600 and 1,000 yards, by a total of 770. Second place went to the Second District of Columbia, with 759; third to the First District of Columbia, with 755, and fourth to the Seventh New York.

CUBAN EDITOR KILLED.

First Issue Fatal for Him—Reason is Assigned.

Havana, Sept. 2.—Juan Amer, editor of the Satirical Weekly Chantecler of which the first issue appeared this morning, was shot and killed this evening by Jose Pennino, a liberal candidate for city councilman in Havana. The cause of the shooting was a scurrilous article in the Chantecler concerning a young woman prominent in society to whom Pennino is attentive. Pennino was arrested.

ORDEN, UTAH, AUG. 27.—The fire in the Targhee forest continued to spread throughout the day and all settlers were warned to flee. They hoped to board a train on the Oregon Short Line, which would arrive in Island Park before dawn, although it is in danger of being cut off by the flames.

AIMS ATTACK AT ROOSEVELT

Member of "Old Guard" Says Hysteria Has Run Riot in Republican Ranks—Criticism Assertions of the Colonel.

New York, Sept. 2.—William Barnes, Jr., Republican State committeeman and leader of Albany, issued a statement tonight in which he declared that "hysteria has run riot throughout this country" and that the question to be decided at the coming Republican State Convention at Saratoga is "whether the Republican party will fight the disease or succumb in the interests of politicians seeking office or temporary acclaim."

The character of the recent address of Theodore Roosevelt in the West, Mr. Barnes says, "has startled all thoughtful men and impressed them with the frightful danger which lies in his political ascendancy."

When he talked with Col. Roosevelt after the meeting that selected Vice President Sherman, as temporary chairman of the convention over the colonel and learned his attitude toward "public matters," Mr. Barnes said he told the former President that he never could have voted for him.

Mr. Barnes' statement in part says: "At the coming convention it will be determined whether the Republican party of this State, officially, through its chosen representatives in convention, intends to bow its head to the political agitation of the hour, which is the cause of the palsy overhanging the business world today, or will stand firmly and in unshakable terms by its rock-ribbed conservative principles, which have, when it is in power, given confidence to the business world, and encouraged enterprise."

"The recent attack upon the Supreme Court of the United States by a keen witted and aspiring citizen, could not have been made without a purpose well thought out. It was an appeal to passion. If this appeal against judicial decisions is popular and is not rebuked, there is no reason whatsoever, if a direct primary law should be enacted in this State, that candidates for judicial offices, compelled to run the gauntlet of a district or State-wide primary, would not in order to appeal to the temporary sentiments of the moment, declare in advance their attitude upon matters which would come before them for judicial review. Instead of men of long legal experience and judicial training, there would be candidates for the bench from lawyers who would not hesitate to make that kind of appeal to the people which would be a disgrace to the profession."

GRISCOM MAKES REPLY.

Fairfield, Conn., Sept. 2.—When Mr. Barnes' statement was communicated to Lloyd C. Griscom, president of the New York Republican County Committee at his country place here tonight he dictated the following reply:

"Mr. Barnes is striving by words to make the public forget that he and his closest political associates have recently been caught in an ugly and deceitful attempt to obtain control of the coming Republican State convention. The Republican party in New York State will have a welcome opportunity at the convention to reprove such methods."

The trial of direct primaries in the State of New York, says a new system, carefully elaborated by Hughes, meets with the approval of such wise leaders as President Taft, Mr. Roosevelt and Senator Root. It is difficult to see why the Republican party should refuse to the voters an opportunity to closer and greater participation in party government."

"I doubt if any word of Mr. Barnes will make this clear."

MOUNTAINS TO SEA IS HIGHWAY GOAL

Enthusiastic Meeting Yesterday at Laurinburg Launches a Definite Movement.

ORGANIZATION IS EFFECTED

Col. H. C. Dockery President—Legislative and Other Committees Are Named—Inspiring Address and Suggestions.

(Staff Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., Sept. 2.—At the Highway Convention held here today amid the greatest enthusiasm, the Charlotte to Wilmington Highway Association was permanently organized for the purpose of linking the various county good roads into a modern highway extending from the seashore to Charlotte, where it will connect with a highway soon to be completed to Asheville. The officers elected were: President—H. C. Dockery, of Rockingham.

Vice President—H. W. Malloy, of Wilmington.

Secretary and Treasurer—John L. Everett, of Rockingham.

It was decided to undertake at once the completion of the proposed inter-city highway and for that purpose that ways and means, financial, legislative and executive committees were organized by the association with instructions to begin the performance of their duties at once. The ten counties along the route of the highway were represented in the convention and numerous talks were made, zealously advocating the highway.

Among the speakers was Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist and president of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, who made suggestions of a practical nature involving the scientific and systematic construction of good roads, and recommending the form of organization to accomplish the purpose. Delegates from the various counties informed the association of the condition of the roads and bridges in their counties and they were so satisfactory that it is believed that the roads can be improved and linked up into a continuous highway by the first of January.

All the counties enthusiastically endorsed the enterprise and pledged their earnest efforts to make it an accomplished fact. Membership entries were made and the fees paid in amounted to $63. The highway will be surveyed by a competent highway engineer and through his aid the executive committee and various subcommittees in the counties will select the route. For the purpose of securing the necessary legislation affecting the enterprise a legislative committee was appointed, its chairman being the Hon. George Rountree, of Wilmington.

Wilmington was well represented in the convention, having had the largest delegation in attendance, except the live county of Columbus, which had a large number of delegates en masse in the highway.

The party came up on the morning train and on the way they were joined by the Columbus and Bladen representatives. Upon the arrival of the train here, citizens were present at the station with automobiles and other vehicles and after giving appropriate addresses on the arriving delegates the party was escorted up town.

The convention assembled at 10:30 A. M. in the beautiful court house of Scotland. There were nearly 200 delegates in attendance, representing the very best of the ten counties interested in the highway. Upon motion Col. H. C. Dockery was called to the chair and he stated the object of the meeting in a speech which aroused the delegates to the importance of the enterprise. The following were made secretaries: R. F. Beasley, Monroe Journal; Jas. C. Boylin, of Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer; Powell Allan, of the Charlotte Observer; Rev. T. W. Chambliss, of Wadesboro, and T. W. Clawson, of the Wilmington Star.

After a discussion of the object of the meeting, it was suggested by Mr. C. Herbert Smith, of Crony, that Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt was present and it would probably be better for the convention to hear him concerning this project and the best plan to pursue in order to accomplish the purpose for which the convention had been called.

Hon. Geo. Rountree, of Wilmington, agreed to that proposition and the call was made upon Dr. Pratt amid applause. Dr. Pratt stated that the assemblage was composed of men who were good roads advocates and therefore it was unnecessary to advance any arguments in favor of good roads. Everywhere here, he said, want good roads; the question now is, how to accomplish the purpose for which

FLETCHER WINS RAIN GAME

Two to Nothing Score in Favor of Wilmington at League Park Yesterday—Umpire Henderson Holds Indicator—Notes of Game.

Results Yesterday.
Rocky Mount 1, Wilson 1, darkness.
Wilmington 2, Fayetteville 0.
Raleigh 1, Goldsboro 4.
2nd: Raleigh 6, Goldsboro 2.

Where They Play Today.
Fayetteville at Wilmington.
Wilson at Rocky Mount.

Fletcher's effective twirling backed by errorless support, held the Klitties down, and an even half dozen errors allowed the Sailors to score the runs to win the second game of the series at League Park yesterday.

The Sailors played an errorless game under the most difficult circumstances as the rain came down all through the game. Until the first score was put across in the sixth, the Highlanders kept urging that the game be called, but after that insisted that it be played out although the rain was gradually getting harder all the time. Umpire Henderson held the indicator, and was strictly on the job, as is his usual custom, and there was very little kicking on his decisions. Mayer for the Highlanders pitched magnificent ball, and but for the errors on the field would have been hard to beat.

In the first two innings both sides were out in one, two, three order, and in the fourth after two men were down, Hartley was given a pass, but Tidy Ty. ended it when he pulled down Mullen's long fly over his head in left. In the last half Kluttz lined to second, and Dubbs made first on a bunt when Hartley threw wild. Dubby, second, and Fletcher walked, but Hoffman flew to center and Dubbs was caught off second by a throw from center. There was nothing further doing until the sixth, when after Landgraf had skied to Kluttz, Hartley singled to right, and went to second on a wild pitch. Mullen walked, but the next two died on first ending the first half. In Wilmington's half, Fletcher started with one to second, and was safe when he fumbled it, going to second on Hoffman's put out on first, and to third on a wild pitch. Cooper came to the rescue with a single to right, scoring Fletcher, and stole second himself, but Tydemann and Orth availed.

In the seventh, Schumaker struck out and Breitstein was out on first, after which Luyster sent one by the Bull's head which was good for two bags. Mayer was walked, and stole second after Luyster had made third on a wild pitch. Landgraf was hit by pitched ball and took first, filling the three corners.

But Hartley couldn't connect safely and the side was retired without a tally. In the last half, after Doak had skied to right, Kite was safe on an error of left, and stole second. Kluttz singled to right and took another bag on the throw in, while Kite was safe on third, scoring a moment later on a passed ball. Kluttz went to third on a wild pitch, and Dubbs beat out a bunt, and stole second. Fletcher hit a foul to right which first baseman caught, and Kluttz was caught at the plate.

In the eighth, Mullen struck out, O'Halloran was out on first, and Dwyer fouled to Kite. Hoffman was out pitcher to first, and Cooper flew to left, after which Tydemann was safe on an error of third, and went to third when catcher threw wild to second on his attempted steal. Orth flew to right. Three Highlanders fell before the Big Boy in the ninth, and it was all over.

PENNANT DREAMS.

Just smile again fans.
We're on our way to glory.
With all that Rockefeller stuff, we'll nail you yet.

Wilson evidently has got Rocky Mount's goat.

Ned Doak handled nine put-outs in faultless style, and was perfectly at home on first.

Cooper, Kite and Tydemann each annexed an extra cushion on Hartley, and Dubby purloined a couple.

Dubby was the only Navigator who couldn't touch Mayer in some way every time, he being the Highlander flinger's first victim in the ninth.

The Big Boy had everything yesterday, although at times it seemed as if he was weakling. Eight of the twenty-nine men facing him going out via the strike-out route, while Mayer couldn't tangle but a lone one.

"Hope springs eternal," etc., was aptly illustrated by the Klitties yesterday. They didn't want to play a bit till we put that tally across in the sixth, after which they held-out with bull-dog tenacity for the full nine innings, while the rain came down harder every inning.

Umpire Henderson was on the job yesterday, and untipped his usual way. He has the confidence of every team around the league, and has given more universal satisfaction than any of them, and with him at this end for the remaining games here, both sides are sure of a square deal every time.

"It's going to be a mighty close shave, whoever gets by with the second series. If we play three more games with Fayetteville and can take the lion's share, our standing Monday night will be 574, while if Rocky Mount splits even on the four games they have with Wilson they will stand just five points lower, 571, and in case rain does not interfere our prediction is that it will end thus.

Whether there will be a doubleheader pulled off today or not could not be ascertained last night, as Fayetteville contended for it, and the local management is trying to let one of the postponed Fayetteville games go by, playing one game this afternoon and two games, a morning and an afternoon game Monday. The matter will be settled by referring to headquarters this morning, and anyone calling Struthers' Cigar Store can find whether we are to take one or two games today.

Yes, dear Record poster, we plead guilty of kicking on the "umpire's" decisions Thursday, and will say further that it beat anything that has ever occurred on our diamond before, but from the dope you spat out through your columns the first three days of last week when you were up against the same proposition in the umpiring line, we think you have us outdistanced a little yet, and after you have digested said comments from your file copies, just turn over to last Saturday's issue, and peruse the bouquet you yourself threw at Henderson, the same ump that those "near-fans" would have you think was robbing you. You stand convicted on your own testimony, and your only defense is to destroy all outstanding copies of last week's issues of your paper. And again referring to the passage in the report which you have underscored, referring to the police protection, it was not this end of the line at that time. We had won the game notwithstanding the decisions, and it was those Klitties on the job, after the game. Newcombe taking refuge at last under the Sailor shield. As for that mean hit the cut in the News and Observer's headline, we notice that there is pretty strong evidence that a limited number of "sports" in the Capitol City, their attendance running about the same all through a series, while we have larger crowds on Saturdays than both the other towns together on the very rare occasions when we have favorable weather.

TWELVE INNINGS TO A TIE

Rocky Mount and Wilson One to One When Darkness Put End to Argument—Burke as an Indicator Man.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Rocky Mount, N. C., Sept. 2.—A walk-and-slow infolding allowed the Tobaccoists to score in the opener today while the crew tied it up in the eighth when Peartree dashed for the plate from second on Gillespie's grounder that didn't have speed to reach the fielder. This dashed tied the score and was the day's feature.

The game was called at the end of the 12th on account of darkness. Tracey outpitched Lane, and barring the first two frames when a hit was made in each inning, he held the worms hitless. The game unfolded in sensational plays and was nerve wrecking throughout. Burke again officiated in the same satisfactory manner and he looks goods as an indicator man bound for the big show.

SPLIT EVEN A DOUBLEHEADER

Raleigh and Goldsboro Each Took a Game in Red Bird Territory Yesterday Afternoon—Last for Eight Innings.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 2.—Raleigh and Goldsboro each won a game in the doubleheader here this afternoon, the first going to Goldsboro 4 to 1, and the second to the Red Birds 6 to 3.

The first was a passable game but the last, called in the eighth inning on account of darkness, was about the poorest ever seen here.

PURCHASING HIS OWN COFFIN

Suspicious Actor of Raleigh, N.C., Created Some Alarm Among His Friends—Brought Around All Right—Other Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 2.—The fact that F. D. Overby had gone to the undertaking house of J. H. Brown & Co., here and purchased a coffin that some feared he intended for his own body, added to the fact that he talked of ending his life, gave his friends and employers, Johnson & Johnson Ice Company here, a considerable scare today.

Early this morning he purchased the coffin. He said it was for H. D. Overby, who he said died near McCollers, the funeral to be this afternoon at Winstown church. He said he wanted the coffin six feet three inches. Then he talked of getting one six feet and finally declared he and the man he wanted it for were the same size and purchased one five feet, eight inches. It was ordered to be trimmed up in a hurry, he to call for it within an hour but was not seen there again until he was brought by during the afternoon by his brother, who asked the undertaker to identify him as his customer. This Mr. Ed. Brown readily did. All morning there had been searching for the young man. He seemed all right except for the "rounds" he had been through. Said he had no recollection of his investment in the coffin.

Chairman James R. Young, of the special committee from the State Democratic Executive Committee to settle the Sixth District middle, through the voting primary ordered for September 15th, says only two candidates, H. L. Godwin and O. L. Clark, claimants of the nomination for Congress in the first sensational convention have entered so that the contest settles down to these two. They have signed their pledges to abide by the result and paid in their money for the expense of the primary, so the race is on with all eyes turned on the District Democrats anxious for a friendly and unifying campaign and Republicans hoping for the worst in a bitter campaign which is unfortunately regarded as not at all possible.

SECRETARY MACVEIGH EXPLAINS.

Ruling on the Term "Commercial Paper"—Currency Law.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Secretary MacVeigh's ruling on the term "commercial paper" in the Treasury Department's interpretation of the emergency currency law, became known in its full import here today. Business men and banks throughout the country have been anxiously waiting for it. The Chicago banks, which raised the question, and banks all through the West felt that if it were adverse they would be unable to form effective currency associations. The way now is clear for the banks of the United States to put into circulation $500,000,000 in emergency money at the first sign of a financial stringency.

The law provides that commercial paper upon which emergency currency may be issued shall include only notes representing actual commercial transactions which shall bear the names of at least two responsible persons and have not more than four months to run.

A large proportion of the banks hold the notes of reputable individuals and corporations which have been bought from note brokers. These notes bear only the name of the maker. Secretary MacVeigh has decided that the endorsement of the holding bank upon such notes will constitute the second endorsement which the law calls for.

Mr. MacVeigh also holds that notes issued by reputable persons for the carrying on of bona fide business and which are discounted at banks, represent actual commercial transactions and are distinct from what is known as accommodation paper. The latter is strictly barred from being used as the basis of an issue of emergency currency.

In making a liberal interpretation of the term "commercial paper" the Secretary of the Treasury holds it to be what the bank themselves consider it, and has endeavored to construe the law so as to meet the needs of the business and financial world.

TWO TRAINMEN KILLED.

Head-on Collision of Passenger Trains in Pennsylvania.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 2.—Two trainmen were killed and several passengers injured in a head-on collision of passenger trains on the Pennsylvania division of the Erie Railroad this afternoon. The trains came together on a single track near Lake Arfel. The dead were Dan Smith, engineer, and John B. Miller, fireman on the eastbound train. Martin Carroll, baggage master of the eastbound train, is in a critical condition, his ribs having been caved in by the crash which followed the collision.

Engineer Smith's body was recovered, but the body of Fireman Miller is still under the wreckage.

The wrecked trains were locals running between this city and Hawley, Pa. Company officials say the wreck was due to disobedience of orders. The engines were badly wrecked and the forward cars damaged.

OPENING AT TRINITY.

Announcements of Importance to Students for Fall Term.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Durham, N. C., Sept. 1.—Trinity College will open Wednesday morning, September 7th, at 9 o'clock. The first exercise will be the chapel services held in Craven Memorial Hall. The first faculty meeting of the year will be held Saturday, September 3rd.

Several new members of the faculty have been elected during the summer, and they will begin their work at the opening of the college. Prof. Robinson G. Anderson will begin his work in the Department of Law; Prof. R. N. Wilson in the Department of Chemistry; Assistant Prof. A. L. McCobb in the Department of Modern Languages; and Prof. J. A. Morgan in the Department of Economics and Social Science. Mr. H. E. Spence will have work in the Department of English as an assistant professor. In addition to these, regular members of the faculty several assistants have been appointed in the different departments.

Old students will find several changes on the campus when they return. The splendid new building is nearing completion and the grading of the new athletic field has been finished. The field is now ready to be sowed in grass.

The Young Men's Christian Association has issued a handbook which contains much information that will be of great service to new students. The management of the Chronicle, the weekly paper published by the students, has arranged to issue a special edition of the paper to be ready for distribution at the opening of the college. It also will contain information of special interest to the students entering college for the first time. The student body has established a bureau of information and has appointed committees of students to meet all trains on which new students will arrive in Durham. All assistance will thus be given the new men in getting quickly settled in their new quarters.

The authorities of the college have secured additional rooms for students in private houses near the campus. This was made necessary by the unusually large demands for rooms for new students. They have also been fortunate in being able to lease a large private residence and to secure options on comfortable and conveniently located rooms to be available for the use of students.

TOLL OF "SANE" FOURTH.

Almost 3,000 Persons Injured and 31 Deaths This Year.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Although the list of deaths and accidents due to the celebration of the Fourth of July is appalling, the "sane" observance of the day this year shows a notable improvement in this respect, according to statistics compiled by the Journal of the American Medical Association, which were made public here today.

The summary shows 2,923 persons were injured July 4th this year, of which 31 died. Sixty-seven deaths were due to tetanus; 19 were killed outright by fire arms; 11 by explosions of powder, bombs or torpedoes; six by cannon or similar contrivances while 26, mostly little girls, were burned to death by fire from fireworks.

Starting as in this showing, it is the best since 1903 when the Journal began keeping its record. In 1903, 4,149 persons were injured, of which 466 lost their lives, 406 of them dying from tetanus.

The grand total for eight years shows that 27,526 persons had been injured in Independence Day celebrations, of these 1,662 died, 604 as the direct result of their injuries, and 968 from tetanus following injuries.

The detailed figures for 1910 show 72 cases of lockjaw, 67 of which were fatal; 7 persons lost their sight; 23 lost one eye; 26 lost arms, legs or hands and 114 lost their fingers.

The decrease from 1903 from 1910 is due to more intelligent methods of celebration, the most marked decreases occurring in States where the agitation for restrictive measures was most urgent.

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause break-downs. You can't over-tax nerves, liver, kidneys, bowels or stomach without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c. at Robert R. Bellamy's.

VERIFY IT

The Proof is in Wilmington Almost at Your Door.

The public statement of a Wilmington citizen is in itself strong proof for Wilmington people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is a Wilmington citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved sick kidneys and now states the cure was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

R. A. Biddle, 606 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "About four years ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills for kidney trouble and they did me so much good that I gave a testimonial for publication recommending them. I have had no occasion to take this remedy since then, as the cure has been permanent. I am willing that my testimonial be published again. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills a great many times and know of several people who have been greatly benefited by them."

ALMOST TOPPLED IN RIVER.

Passengers on Derailed New York Train Had a Narrow Escape.

Newton, Mass., Sept. 2.—Several hundred passengers on the noon express from Boston to New York on the Boston and Albany division of the New York Central road, had a miraculous escape with their lives today when the two locomotives and four cars were derailed by an open switch on the edge of the bridge, beyond the Riverside Station, toppling almost into the Charles river. Not more than half a dozen persons were injured beyond bruises.

Three of the four derailed cars were nearly demolished, the smoking car, in which were more than 80 persons, telescoping at right angles the railway mail coach in which four clerks were penned.

The Earl of Euston, whoever he is,
speaks well of the Chicago police,
probably they failed to pull the Earl
for trying to act like Chicago men.

People out in Kansas have fun beating the hide off of a man who happens
to let it be known that he thinks Uncle Joe is being placed in a false light.

Says the Winston-Salem Sentinel:
"Europeans think the trusts are running this country." Now that they have opined and expressed an opinion, can't they tell us how to put on brakes. It doesn't seem that we are able to head-off ourselves.

A statistician has figured out that each person in the United States last year consumed only 80 pounds of sugar. Nevertheless, the Sugar Trust has no right to get our 20 cents by putting up the price when our 80
pounds ought to cost $4.50 instead of $4.80.

It is said that women grow beautiful in a land of flowers and genial climate. Wilmington is the ideal place for producing beauties and that is the reason they are here. Other cities
women who have little pinched up faces, and noses that turn up so you can hang your hat on them, should come to Wilmington and watch the effect. They will get so pretty they will never want to leave Wilmington.

Everybody who purchases a rubber
coat, or rubber shoes, or rubber tire
or rubber that, can reflect that he or she is contributing something to the Aldrich family which owns nearly $3,
500,000 stock in the Rubber Trust.
Senator Aldrich—he was in charge of tariff legislation in the last Congress,
and the duty on rubber manufactures
was increased to 35 per cent ad valorem.
A pauper could make himself a malefactor of great wealth if he could
control the legislation that would tax
consumers for his benefit.

Says the Greensboro Record: "Two candidates for Congress in South Carolina, both Democrats, had a fight Saturday at the joint discussion in the primary canvas. They went at it in great shape and pummeled each other
nicely before they could be separated.
Yet South Carolina says we need a primary like it has! Great Scott!"
The fact that two South Carolinians
had a fight is no argument against a primary election in North Carolina.
We could refuse to let South Carolinians take any hand in our primary election.

Congressman Morehead's postal
frank was worth a great deal to Marion Butler's campaign to whip out the old Republican organization and capture the machine for State Republican Chairman Morehead. Webster's Weekly says Morehead's private clerk sent out one hundred thousand pieces of literature and one hundred thousand letters during the fight for the State chairmanship. Duncan had to come across with stamps to get off his campaign stuff but the Morehead-Butler combination saved many hundreds of dollars for themselves at the expense of Uncle Sam.

The "gum shoe politician" recently introduced to us by the Republican Greensboro Daily News, which drew
his picture "sitting in ease and luxury complacently stroking his pointed beard," promulgating plans and seemes to dupe Republicans, is now
plotting and promulgating plans to Re-publicanize North Carolina. No thank you. North Carolina has enough of Butlerism and negroism from 1904 to 1908, when decent North Carolinians spewed out Butler and his crowd. A man with Butler's task is not entitled to have any future at the hands of North Carolinians who love their native State. Aliens might be Butlerites, but North Carolinians never!

LEGALIZED PRIMARY ELECTION.

Sentiment in North Carolina is rapidly crystallizing in favor of a legalized primary election for the nomination
of candidates for official positions in the State and various counties. A State-wide legalized primary is being demanded from all quarters, and the Charlotte News says there are abundant indications pointing to the ultimate adoption of such a law applying to political parties and contests in general.

North Carolina is behind other States in this connection but circumstances have forced upon the Democrats of the State the advisability of
no longer neglecting the most modern system of making nominations. "Rapidly," says our esteemed Charlotte contemporary, "the counties are appreciating the value of this system
and already there are several which have adopted it as well as Mecklenburg." It is a little strange that the counties have gotten ahead of the State in a matter of such importance.
Quite a number of States have adopted
the plan with the most satisfactory
results and the Democratic and Republican voters of the State should unite in a demand for a system which will permit them to control the nomination
to be made by the respective parties.

The esteemed Charlotte News is quite right when it says the legalized primary "offers voters a voice in the naming of candidates and is founded upon the purest of Democratic doctrine—majority rule." That paper also mentions one of its chief points
when it urges that an election for nominations "practically precludes danger of ring-made candidates." The system gets more nearly at the will of the people than any other and that is the foundation principle of our republican form of government. It is the very essence of democracy, and that is what we want in North Carolina.

We want the people to rule and not the politicians of either party. The Raleigh News and Observer takes strong ground in favor of a legalized
primary in this State, and in that connection says:

"Eight years ago the editor of the News and Observer suggested a plank
in the Democratic platform favoring
a legalized primary in North Carolina,
which was adopted. In the Legislature that followed Senator Cameron introduced a bill providing for a legalized primary, and the News
and Observer stood with Mr. Morris-
son in behalf of that reform measure,
but many of the leaders of both parties opposed it, and others doubted its wisdom for the whole State. It was defeated. Since then the Mecklenburg
under the leadership of Heriot Clarkson, passed a legalized primary act with what result? Its Democratic majority has grown until it is the banner Democratic county in North Carolina. The legalized primary did not give this majority, but it proved that such a method of ascertaining the will of the voters tends to strengthen rather than to weaken the party. Durham, Guilford, Wake and half a dozen other counties have adopted the legalized primary and no bad results have followed. There are objections to the primary, undoubtedly, but there are more objections to the mass meeting and the county and precinct conventions. In the old times, when precincts were wont to send their best
men-uninstructed to the county convention, that was the best system ever devised. But times have changed and the voters generally instruct their delegates, and we have very few of those old time deliberative conventions. The nominating conventions of the old style must pass as did the electoral college, and we must come to the primary—and that means a legalized primary for all parties to be held on the same day regulated by the State authorities.

"At the last meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee Mr.
A. J. Field introduced a resolution calling upon the General Assembly to enact a State legalized primary law.
There was opposition to it, and upon
the motion of the editor of this paper
who stated that the time had come
when the State should have a legalized primary, the resolution was not acted upon, but it will come up for consideration at the next meeting of the committee. Since then Beaufort, Wilson and other counties have passed resolutions in favor of a legalized primary, and the long drawn out conventions have emphasized the danger
of continuing a system having the seeds of producing such friction and trouble.

"There is but one legalized primary
law to be considered—it is the one in operation in Wisconsin, Nebraska, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, Iowa,
and nearly all the Southern States—a law requiring primaries to be held on the same day by all parties and the cost of the same to be paid by the State just as the cost of holding a regular election. The laws in these States are not exactly alike, but the principle is the same, and the legislators should study them all and give North Carolina the best one."

Taft and Sherman seem to have stopped the band from playing on account of "the return from Elba."

North Carolina produces the most sugary watermelons on earth and as long as she does it, we have no idea
of letting the Republicans capture the State.

At Weaverville, N. C., recently, two men who tackled a dentist were killed
and the doctor never got a scratch.
They might have known that the dentist never fails to get the upper hand
of a fellow.

A doctor writes: "In spite of the fact that we are told that sugar is dangerous, men eat the sweetest things that come their way." That's where you are wrong, Doc. We have never seen men eat the Summer girls who "come their way."

HOW THINGS COME HIGH.

When Republicans, for political purposes, attempt to explain to consumers that the tariff is not in any way responsible for the increased cost of living, consumers will either laugh
at the idea or consent to be fooled.
It certainly would require a brave Republican spellbinder to attempt by his sophistry to make consumers
believe what they say, in face of the actual increase of prices which the Republican party expected and practically pledged as a result of protection.
The incidents are of daily occurrence
going to consumers that prices are going up, and certainly there must be some cause for it.

Here is one incident. The Imperial Steel Range Company of Cleveland, Ohio, is now sending out circular letters in which announcement is made
that the price of the ranges which it manufactures have been advanced.
Necessarily the reason for the advance
must be given and here is the company's reason:

"Owing to the continued heavy increase in living expenses, we have been compelled to advance the pay of our skilled labor considerably. This,
coupled with increased cost of certain grades of material, renders it imperative that we make a slight advance in our selling prices."

The Steel Trust, is highly protected in spite of the fact that Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the steel magnate, declared that it wasn't needed, as the steel manufacturers of this country
could compete with the manufacturers of the world without any duty
to add them in doing so. The Trust,
however, got the protection and it manufactures the material which the range manufacturers complain has been increased in cost. The increase in cost of living also makes it necessary for the wages of labor to be increased, and it is an endless chain linked to the protective tariff which the Republican party imposes upon this country. The greed of the special interests which that party protects went too far in again demanding high protection in the face of the people who were demanding that the tariff
tax must be reduced.

The incidents are so numerous that they cannot be recounted, but here
is one which the ladies will understand. In New York a few days ago
the Board of United States General Appraisers overruled the protest of Calhoun, Robbins and Co., Importers,
who contended that they should pay
a duty of 45 per cent ad valorem on women's gloves instead of 50 per cent
demanded by the customs officials.
The appraisers decided that women's cotton gloves are wearing apparel and that the duty is plainly 50 per cent
ad valorem, according to paragraph 324 of the Aldrich-Payne tariff law.
With a tariff tax of 50 per cent on the gloves which economical people have to wear, most any one can understand that such gloves are bound to be increased in price.

A pair of gloves which cost in Europe 50 cents at wholesale pays a duty of 25 cents before the American wholesaler can get them on their shelves. Thus the gloves cost the wholesaler 75 cents a pair, he adds
on his profit from the retailer and the retailer adds on his profit from the person who buys the gloves. The purchaser of the gloves must see that she pays the extra 25 cents for the benefit of American glove manufacturers, and we do not think it can be denied what has caused the increased cost of gloves. Thus it runs all along the line and nobody should be fooled with any kind of argument that the tariff does not contribute a big share to the increased cost of what we wear and eat, as prices advanced
in one particular cause prices to advance generally.

Don't let any grass grow under your feet when a man comes at you with a big stick. By running away you will be able to "come back" when the stick
is not in evidence.

The tariff plotters fooled President Taft into believing that the tariff was revised downward and then furnished some figures which made him mis-
represent the facts.

"The Drink that Never Came Back"

ness instead of fun in a song like that.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS.

Sessions Concluded at Chapel Hill—
The Legislation Sought.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Chapel Hill, N. C., Sept. 2.—The session of the county superintendents at Chapel Hill came to a close today after three days' session. At the morning session Supt. Joyner outlined at length his plan for a farm life school
in each county. This plan was adopted.
It means that the Legislature will be asked to make appropriations for these schools, not to exceed $2,500 for each county.

The Legislature will be asked to raise the appropriation to elementary schools, $75,000 per year. A legislative committee will be appointed.
The session just coming to an end has been interesting and for the most part helpful.

Redell Meares, a disgruntled Democrat of Wilmington, has been nominated by the Republicans of the Sixth district for Congress. The Democrats in that district outnumber the Republicans two to one and, making allowances for losses on account of the unfortunate factional fight among the Democrats, the Democratic candidate
ought to be able to show Mr. Meares
a clean pair of heels along about the ides of November.—Greensboro Telegram.

Morton says that the law against rebating by railroads is a just one and should be rigidly enforced. But he was not of that opinion when himself caught in the act a few years ago, when Roosevelt interposed to save him from the penalty of his crime, and instead of landing him in jail put him in the Cabinet. He did not "feel the halter draw," and therefore can afford to have a "good opinion of the law."—Norfolk Virginian-

Five or six years ago, the man
who would have got up on the streets
in Wilmington and predicted that the time was shortly at hand when Iredell Meares would be running as a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, would have been mobbed.
Yet Mr. Meares has not only been nominated, but has accepted and expects to be elected. In this expectation the Democrats by no means share, yet it is significant as showing how the times have changed. The Sixth district has had a nominal Democratic majority of 6,000, but since it has been rent asunder by the factional fights, it will know no such thing as
that again.—Charlotte Chronicle.

There may be a question of dignity
and propriety in an ex-President taking an active part in political management or thrusting himself into the contentions of party faction; but he is surely free to preach the doctrine of honesty, justice and submission to law
in public and private life. The doctrine is not only sound, but it needs to be persistently preached. It pertains more to human salvation than many another
doctrine that is thundered weekly
from a thousand pulpits. Mr. Roosevelt seems to be speeding westward on a moral crusade. He declares and reiterates in various forms that the
"prime article" of his creed are justice for every man, rich or poor, and the maintenance of public order at all hazards. "If there is disorder," he says, "all reforms must stop until order is restored. I shall insist upon honesty if it breaks up the best business
of the land, and shall insist upon order under all circumstances." There is overmuch "if" in Mr. Roosevelt's talk to the populace—he can hardly be called speeches. There is too much of what "I will do," what "I stand for" and what "I will do," and it does not add especially to the force of his preaching. It suggests unnecessarily that he is in pursuit of power to be exercised by himself in his own way, instead
of inducing people to use their power
in support of his fine doctrine of honesty, even-handed justice, and good order in every community and under all circumstances. There should be no suspicion of self-seeking in your earnest crusade. Much that the ex-
President says is characterized as platitude and commonplace.—New York
Journal of Commerce.

The increased price of cotton that resulted from the gigantic cotton deal brought great benefit to millions of people in the South engaged in the production of cotton, whereas if the
"bills" had lost in the transaction
there would have been an enormous
decline in the price of the staple,
greatly to the damage of the Southern cotton planters and all connected with them. As no other action has been taken in the courts beyond the bringing of an indictment claiming that a contract which would raise the price
of cotton is an act "in restraint of trade, it may well be asked if a combination to put down the price to the great damage of the cotton growers
is not also one in restraint of trade.
In the case in point there were two combinations. One was to depress the price of cotton for the benefit of the New England and Northern cotton mills. This was the "bear" side of the transaction. The other combination, if it was one, was to raise the price of cotton in the interest of the Southern producers. The "bears" were beaten, and in order to get revenge it seems they complained to the United States courts, but if the "bills" had lost the fight doubtless that would have been the end of the matter. The "Picaune" fully believes that the Federal courts are not sectional tribunals,
but will do justice according to the Sherman law, which is absolutely free from sectional bias. The people of the South believe Mr. Hayne has done a great and beneficial service for a great Southern product. As for Mr. Hayne's controversy with parties who are mentioned in his communication, that is
his affair, and only concerns the public so far as the matter may explain
the indictment brought against him
and his associates.—New Orleans Picayune.

TO PHONE WEATHER REPORTS

Bell Company inaugurates New Feature for Benefit of Rural Subscribers—Goes Through Wilmington Exchange.

In line with other progressive steps by the Bell Telephone Company for the betterment of the telephone service, especially in rural communities in the surrounding country, it was announced yesterday from the Wilmington office that in the near future weather reports will be sent daily to subscribers on the country circuits, which will prove a new and advantageous feature of the service.

Subscribers in rural sections for a long time have been petitioning the Bell Company for this improvement and the company recently decided to comply after taking the matter up with the Weather Bureau in Washington. For this district, Manager Rose stated yesterday that the Wilmington office will be the exchange for the rural lines and at the same time each day the reports will be dispatched to the various sections. Some of the leading points that will receive the reports will be Southport, Magnolia, Warsaw, Painsville, the Lumberton line as far as Bladenboro; line going to Florence as far as Chadbourne, and the line to Winnabow, Brunswick county. The company has inaugurated a system by which to transmit these reports and the ringing of five bells each day will be the signal for receiving them from the Wilmington exchange. Of course, the same service is offered city subscribers who care to phone the central office and for information.

Through this medium planters and others in all sections of the country will receive the weather forecast within an hour after it comes out from Washington and possibly two hours ahead of the mail reports.

The statement of the company in brief, regarding the new feature, is as follows:

The furnishing of government weather reports to farmers' line subscribers, where there is a demand for this service, has received careful consideration. Service of this character is given by a number of operating companies in different parts of the country. We have received reports from the government Weather Bureau Service, offering to furnish the service at several central exchanges. We have also received a number of inquiries from farmers' line subscribers in all points of the territory, in regard to furnishing this service, and believe that the furnishing of the service when there is a demand for it, will give increased value and attractiveness to our farmers' line service. We will also be in a position to use the furnishing of this service as a valuable publicity feature."

SON MUCH IMPROVED.

Deputy Sheriff Howe Returns From Sanatorium at Montrose.

Deputy Sheriff W. H. Howe returned to the city yesterday morning from Montrose, Cumberland county, where he had been to visit his son, Mr. Charles A. Howe, who has been a patient of the North Carolina Sanatorium for the treatment of Tuberculosis since the establishment of the institution some months ago. Mr. Howe says that his son is now well on the way to recovery and will be discharged from the institution within three months completely cured of the threatened malady. Mr. Howe says that the buildings are located on a high plateau overlooking the surrounding country for about 15 to 20 miles and the elevation is about 600 feet. The drainage, he says, is perfect. There is a natural park of about 300 acres of long leaf pine and natural oak surround the buildings. The air is as pure and free from humidity as can be found anywhere. The soil is sandy and porous and the water passes rapidly through it, thus enabling the patients to be out of doors immediately after rain. Mr. Howe says that the institution is under excellent management and is worthy the support of all North Carolinians.

OBSERVANCE OF LABOR DAY NEGRO KILLED BY TRAIN

But There Will be no Formal Celebration in Wilmington—Athletic Events at Lumina—Meetings and Other Features.

While there will be no formal celebration, Labor Day will be pretty generally observed by the people of Wilmington and this section and as usual hundreds will flock to the resorts, if the weather is at all favorable. The day is usually marked in this city by a pretty general suspension of business, especially in the afternoon. It is the one day in the year set apart in honor of the working man and with few exceptions the day is used by them as they see fit.

The usual Labor Day athletic events will take place at Wrightsville Beach, in front of Lumina, and will draw hundreds of people to the resort. A large number of attractive events have been arranged by the Y. M. C. A., which were given in full in The Star some days ago. Handsome prizes will be awarded the successful contestants by the Tidewater Power Company. These prizes are now on display in the large show windows at the offices of the Tidewater Power Company, on Front street, near Princess, and have attracted considerable attention.

Many will go to Carolina Beach to spend the day, or a portion of it. The steamer Wilmington is usually crowded on all of its trips down the river on Labor Day and it is believed that the number will even be larger this year. A message from Carolina Beach last night was to the effect that an unusually large crowd was expected Monday.

It being the first Monday in the month, it is day for the regular meeting of nearly all the city and county bodies, but most of the meetings will be postponed until Tuesday. The County Board of Elections will hold a meeting at 11 o'clock, and the County Democratic Executive Committee will meet at 12 o'clock. The regular semi-annual meeting of the Eastern District Association of Rural Letter Carriers will be held on Labor Day in the office of the postmaster in this city. After the meeting the visitors will go to Wrightsville Beach for an oyster roast.

MR. ALLIGOOD BEREAVED.

News of the Death of His Father Received Last Night—Funeral.

A telegram received last evening by members of the family and friends in this city conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Louis Alligood, of Washington, N. C., father of Wilmington's esteemed townsman, Mr. Anson Alligood, manager of the large department store of Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co. The deceased passed away at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the 74th year of his age. Mr. and Mrs. Alligood left Monday to be with their father in his last illness and were with him when the end came. The funeral will be conducted at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and the interment will be in the cemetery there.

Mr. Alligood is survived by a devoted wife, three sons and one daughter, S. F. Alligood and Carmel Alligood and Mrs. John Respriss, of Washington and Mr. Anson Alligood, of this city. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

Family Expresses Thanks.

Life Saver Greeman Yopp at Lumina has received from Mr. W. W. Hurley a letter expressing the deep appreciation of the family for the life savor's heroic efforts to save Mr. Virgil Hurley, who lost his life while surfing bathing at Wrightsville Beach last week. It will be recalled that Mr. Yopp, after holding the man above water for 20 minutes, succeeded in getting him ashore. The young man died in a few seconds, however, of exhaustion.

Escaped From County Home.

Report was made at police headquarters yesterday morning that a white man by the name of Soland escaped from the county home Thursday and took with him a valuable watch and chain belonging to Superintendent Blake. It is stated that the man stopped at a watchmaker's shop on Fourth street, near Campbell, Thursday afternoon, but did not leave the watch there. The police officers are making a search for Soland.

CONTEST CLOSES TONIGHT.

Fans and Fannabellies Should Vote Today for Favorite Player.

The voting contest inaugurated last Monday to determine the most popular player on the Wilmington baseball team of the Eastern Carolina Association will close at 9 o'clock tonight and it is expected that the friends of the players will be exceedingly active today in the contest. Each member has received some votes, there are seven or eight players who seem to be considerably in the lead. Today's vote may change the standing entirely. The one who received the fewest votes during the week may go to top place before the contest closes tonight. Therefore, the fans and fannabellies should be very active today in the interest of their favorite player. Announcement of the winner of the ring will not be made until Monday afternoon at League Park, where the presentation takes place.

The Wilmington Furniture Company offers to give a handsome rocking chair to the person casting the highest number of votes at its store during the week, while the Hodges Studio gives 100 votes for every sitting. A list of the stores that give votes with every ten cent purchase was given in last Sunday's Star.

RALLY CALL FOR FANS.

The kingdom of China is composed of some 400 to 500 million souls. It has been an established custom since the time of Confucius for the ruler of that vast horde to go out and plough one furrow as an encouragement to his subjects. Everyone except idiots, or those who receive encouragement of some sort or kind at some time or another, must have a furrow. The present management of the Wilmington Baseball Club needs your "encouragement" in the shape of attendance. They assume the responsibility of working the process of extraction if they can get it. Not only do they want it but they need it. They have a right to expect it from the anxious bench warmer when the league was on the verge of dissolution. Just donate "two bits" or a quarter at the entrance, as one fan so vociferously and earnestly yells, "Just one time, everybody!" Furthermore the article of ball being put at present and recently should be without any reminder, sufficient "dig" and see the game. Furthermore a burg that flings out its chest and announces to the State that it is "the biggest in it" should hang its sleepy head when the attendance at one of those games is reported at "wake up," perhaps he was talking to the stands too. Furthermore we want that rag, Empty benches won't get it. Today and Monday let every man, woman and child, regardless of "race, color or previous condition" go out to that ball park and whoop 'em up.

AT CAROLINA BEACH.

Every Opportunity for Spending Labor Day.

Many Wilmington people will be gratified to know that all arrangements have been made for entertaining a large number of people Sunday and Monday at Carolina Beach. Sunday will be a delightful and probably the last opportunity of the Summer to spend a couple of days by the sea as Labor Day on Monday is a holiday and there will be no occasion to return to the city before evening of that day.

Mr. H. C. Pearsall, the popular manager of the Carolina Beach Hotel, announces that the hotel will not close until Sept. 13th, and that he will be prepared to take care of large crowds tomorrow and Monday. Mr. H. A. Kure also advertises that he has accommodations for a large number and all indications point to a large crowd. Meals will be served at Carolina Beach Hotel by Mr. Pearsall at 10 cents each. The menu will be as follows:

Chicken	Roast Beef
Deviled Crabs	Shrimp
Clam Chowder	Clam Fritters
Fried Fish	Baked Fish
Lima Beans	Tomatoes
Ice Cream	Cake

STEPHENS CASE TODAY.

Ex-Patrolman Will be Given Hearing on Charge of Assault.

The case against ex-Patrolman G. E. Stephens, charged with assault and battery on a negro man, on Second street, between Princess and Chestnut streets, Tuesday night, will be called in Justice Bornemann's court today. At the time of the alleged assault Mr. Stephens was a member of the police force, but when he went off duty Thursday morning he left his badge, whistle and club at the City Hall and stated that he had no desire to be a policeman any longer. It is charged that the ex-officer clubbed the negro without placing him under arrest. L. Clayton Grant, Esq., will appear for the prosecution. The negro may make affidavit for removal of the case to another magistrate. There is much interest in the result of the hearing; not as much, however, as there would have been had the defendant continued a member of the force.

MRS. JULIA A. SELLARS DEAD.

Passed Away at Home of Daughter in This City Yesterday.

Many friends in this city as well as in Brunswick county will learn with deep regret of the death of Mrs. Julia A. Sellars, widow of Mr. Peter L. Sellars, of Brunswick county, who passed away at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Galloway, No. 209 South Front street, after an illness of about two months. Had she lived until November 15th, Mrs. Sellars would have been 80 years old. She is survived by one son, Mr. Peter G. Sellars, of Town Creek, and two daughters, Mrs. Nancy L. Sexton, of Town Creek, and Mrs. W. W. Galloway, of this city, all of whom have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement. Her husband, Mr. Peter L. Sellars, died in 1874. The body will be taken this morning to Town Creek and the funeral and interment will occur there at 10 o'clock this morning.

SAD DEATH OF CHILD.

Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fales Passes Away.

Janie Fales, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fales, of Winter Park, passed away Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, after an illness of only one day. The little one fell from a chair Wednesday and became violently ill a short time later. However, her condition was not regarded as serious by the attending physician and the parents were totally unprepared for the shock caused by the little one's passing. The exact cause of death has not been determined, so far as could be learned yesterday. The body was taken yesterday afternoon to Wrightsville and interment was in the family burying ground there. Mr. and Mrs. Fales have the sympathy of a great many friends.

THREW SELF ON CAR TRACK.

Strange Suicide of Richmond Woman. Leaves a note.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 2.—Miss E. Muriel Keith, a stenographer, 24 years old who boarded at the Young Woman's Christian Association Summer Home, at Union Theological Seminary, Henrico county, committed suicide at 7:15 o'clock yesterday morning by throwing herself in front of a rapidly moving car on the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railway. Death was instantaneous, the body being horribly mangled.

A note to her employer, Mark R. Lloyd, general manager of the Virginia State Fair Association, found near the body, gave despondency as the first clue to the reasons for her act, and indicated that her mind until the last was on her work. The note read:

"Dear Mr. Lloyd:
"Being in a depressed state of mind, I have determined to end my life. Please notify my mother in England and have my personal effects sent to her at No. 3 Colville Terrace, Baywater, London.
"I wish you much success in your Fair Association work.
"Very truly yours, E. Muriel Keith."
Miss Keith was an Englishwoman, coming recently to this country with her brother, who, with a cousin, is the only relative in America. She had letters of introduction to British Vice Consul Wilmer. As a trained office stenographer she had no difficulty in securing permanent employment, and officials of the Fair Association considered her work most satisfactory.

Miss Keith left her friends at Richmond Hall yesterday morning shortly before 7 o'clock to take a short walk in accordance with a not unusual custom, saying something about mailing a letter at the corner letter box, which is on the corner of the Brook Turnpike and Westwood avenue, just at the entrance to the Union Seminary grounds. The Ashland Express leaving Richmond at 7:10 o'clock, passed along the company's right-of-way about 7:15 at a speed of from twenty to thirty miles an hour. According to Motorman J. P. Swann, the car may have been going at a faster speed. He saw the young woman walking on the roadway beside the track, apparently about fifteen feet from it. He whistled as usual for the grade crossing at Westwood Avenue. When the car was less than 100 feet from her, Miss Keith turned and crossed the track and either fell or threw herself across it, apparently making no effort to rise. The emergency brake was applied, and the whistle screamed but the time was too short—the heavy car rolled over the body, and before the crew and passengers could alight she was dead.

COL. HOLLINGSWORTH INJURED.

Well Known Fayetteville Citizen in Auto Accident—One Killed.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 2.—Mr. H. M. Deputy, of Philadelphia, was instantly killed; Col. J. C. Hollingsworth, of Fayetteville, N. C., probably suffered fatal injuries, his skull being fractured, and Dr. R. P. Talbot, of West Virginia, severely hurt, in an automobile accident at the Soldiers' Home this morning at 1 o'clock. The ill-fated car contained also Chauffeur E. H. Jordan and J. M. Curry, of Fayetteville, but neither of whom suffered more than a shakeup.

The accident was caused by the collision of the machine with another said to belong to E. S. Burrell, who, with E. H. Jordan, were placed under arrest pending the result of the coroner's inquest. The other machine, a tempted to cross the road ahead of the wrecked car. Deputy and the injured men all jumped from the car as it headed into the one ahead, while the chauffeur and Curry remained in their seats. They think that all would have got off with slight injuries had they stayed in the machine.

The injured men were hurried to the Johnston Willis Sanatorium, where it was reported this afternoon that Mr. Hollingsworth was in an almost dying condition and that little hope is entertained for his recovery, though he has a slight chance. Col. Hollingsworth's wife, father, Mr. B. G. Hollingsworth, his business partner, Mr. R. L. Holland, Mrs. Kate Breed and Messrs. J. H. Culbreth and O. O. Souders arrived tonight from Fayetteville to be with him. They left Fayetteville at noon.

MAY STOP COINAGE OF GOLD.

Plan Favored by Treasurer McClung Expense Too Great.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Coinage of gold in the United States will be suspended for an indefinite period if plans now forming in the Treasury Department are adopted. The idea is to issue gold certificates for all gold bullion and foreign coin turned into the mints, instead of coining the minto eagles and double eagles. It is understood that Treasurer McClung in his annual report will endorse the plan, which was originated by A. Platt Andrew, now assistant secretary of the treasury, when he was director of the mint.

Two reasons for such a step are pointed out. The first is to save from $30,000 to $500,000 a year in mint expenses. The second is to stop coining gold at the expense of the United States for the convenience of foreign money markets, which use it for the settlement of commercial balances.

New York, August 27.—The hand of the law descended on Hyman I. Halprin, a real estate broker, while he was at prayer in a Brooklyn church tonight.

He was locked up for arraignment tomorrow charged with the larceny of $2,000. The complainant, a widow, says that her losses from dealings with Halprin will total $50,000.

THREW SELF ON CAR TRACK.

Strange Suicide of Richmond Woman. Leaves a note.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 2.—Miss E. Muriel Keith, a stenographer, 24 years old who boarded at the Young Woman's Christian Association Summer Home, at Union Theological Seminary, Henrico county, committed suicide at 7:15 o'clock yesterday morning by throwing herself in front of a rapidly moving car on the Richmond and Chesapeake Bay Railway. Death was instantaneous, the body being horribly mangled.

A note to her employer, Mark R. Lloyd, general manager of the Virginia State Fair Association, found near the body, gave despondency as the first clue to the reasons for her act, and indicated that her mind until the last was on her work. The note read:

"Dear Mr. Lloyd:
"Being in a depressed state of mind, I have determined to end my life. Please notify my mother in England and have my personal effects sent to her at No. 3 Colville Terrace, Baywater, London.
"I wish you much success in your Fair Association work.
"Very truly yours, E. Muriel Keith."
Miss Keith was an Englishwoman, coming recently to this country with her brother, who, with a cousin, is the only relative in America. She had letters of introduction to British Vice Consul Wilmer. As a trained office stenographer she had no difficulty in securing permanent employment, and officials of the Fair Association considered her work most satisfactory.

Miss Keith left her friends at Richmond Hall yesterday morning shortly before 7 o'clock to take a short walk in accordance with a not unusual custom, saying something about mailing a letter at the corner letter box, which is on the corner of the Brook Turnpike and Westwood avenue, just at the entrance to the Union Seminary grounds. The Ashland Express leaving Richmond at 7:10 o'clock, passed along the company's right-of-way about 7:15 at a speed of from twenty to thirty miles an hour. According to Motorman J. P. Swann, the car may have been going at a faster speed. He saw the young woman walking on the roadway beside the track, apparently about fifteen feet from it. He whistled as usual for the grade crossing at Westwood Avenue. When the car was less than 100 feet from her, Miss Keith turned and crossed the track and either fell or threw herself across it, apparently making no effort to rise. The emergency brake was applied, and the whistle screamed but the time was too short—the heavy car rolled over the body, and before the crew and passengers could alight she was dead.

Tragedy at Dallas, Texas, Costs Two Lives.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 2.—After shooting and fatally wounding his 16-year-old wife at their home here last night, William Jones, aged 19, sent a bullet through his brains, dying almost instantly.

Although badly wounded the woman fled from the house, Jones following and firing at her as she ran. A second bullet struck her in the back and she fell unconscious in the street. He then turned the revolver on himself. Domestic troubles are supposed to have caused the tragedy.

ally think that outside nations have a juster idea than our own people of the magnitude and success of the work. I wish our people realized what is being done on the isthmus. If a man of intelligence who had never left this country asked me whether I would advise him to make a short trip to Europe, or a trip to the Panama Canal, I would, without hesitation, advise him to go to the Panama Canal. He would there see in operation the completing of one of the great feats of modern times. Colonel Goethals and the men working under him are rendering a service to this country which can only be paralleled in our past history by some of the services rendered in certain wars.

Six years ago last spring the American government took possession of the isthmus. The first two years were devoted to the sanitation of the isthmus, to assembling the plant and the working force, and providing quarters, food, and water supplies. In all these points the success was extraordinary. From one of the plague spots of the globe, one of the most unhealthy regions in the entire world, the isthmus has been turned into a singularly healthy place of abode, where the death rate is small, and where hundreds of children are now being raised under as favorable conditions as in most parts of the United States. The quarters, food, and water supply are excellent, and the plant the best ever gathered for such a purpose. Active excavation on a large scale did not begin until January, 1907. Three years and a half have gone by since then, and three fifths of the total excavation has already been accomplished. The amount taken out has passed anything which previous experience warranted us in believing to be possible in 1908 and 1909 the monthly average of rock and earth removed was three million cubic yards, notwithstanding the fact that nine months of each year constituted a season of very heavy rainfall. There remains to be excavated only about sixty million cubic yards. If we could keep up the past average of excavation, this should be done in twenty months; but it is impossible to maintain such a ratio as the depth increases; for the output necessarily diminishes as the field of operation narrows. Still, it is certain that such a rate can be maintained as will enable the workers to finish the excavation considerably in advance of the date fixed for opening the canal—January 1st, 1915. Indeed, it shall be surprised if the canal cannot be opened six months or even a year in advance of the time set.

The work has two great features: The Culebra Cut, which I have been considering, and the great dam at Gatun. The latter is to imprison the waters of the Chagres and other streams into a lake with an area of 164 square miles. This work is advancing steadily, and just as successful as the work on the Culebra Cut.

The water which is ultimately to fill the lock is now flowing through the concrete spillway in the center of the dam, the Chagres having been diverted from its bed and placed under complete control. The construction of the dam has advanced sufficiently to convince the engineers in charge of the work of its absolute stability and imperviousness. The concrete work on the lock is advancing so rapidly that the first double-set at Gatun will be completed this coming November, and the engineer in charge has announced that all the concrete in all the locks will be in place two years hence. The date of final completion and formal opening of the canal to the commerce of the world will be determined by the time consumed in placing the great steel gates, emergency dams, and all appliances for operating the docks. But those in charge of the work announce without hesitation that everything will be finished well in advance of January 1st, 1915.

This is a stupendous record of achievement. As a people we are rather fond of criticizing ourselves, and sometimes with very great justice; but even the most pessimistic critic should sometimes think of what is to our credit. Among our assets of the past ten years will be placed the extraordinary ability, integrity, and success with which we have handled all the problems inherited as the result of the Spanish war; the way we have handled ourselves in the Philippines, in Cuba, in Porto Rico, in San Domingo, and in Panama. The crisis of the battle fleet around the world was a striking proof that we had made good with the navy; and what we have done at Panama represents the accomplishment of one of the great feats of the ages. It is a feat which reflects the highest honor upon our country, and our gratitude is due to every man who has taken an honorable part in any capacity in bringing about its performance.

We now have a further duty to perform in connection with it, and that is to fortify it. We are in honor bound to fortify it ourselves, and only by so doing can we effectively guarantee its neutrality, and, moreover, effectively guarantee that it shall not be used against us. The chief material advantage—certainly one of the chief material advantages—which we shall gain by its construction is the way in which it will, for defensive purposes, double the power of the United States navy. To refuse to fortify it, and, above all, to consider for a moment such an act of utter weakness and folly as to invite other nations to step in and guarantee the neutrality of this purely American work, and thereby really to make it certain that in the event of war we should find the canal used against us, as our fleets would be forbidden to pass through it, or else our opponents' fleets permitted to, would be to incur, and quite rightly, the contempt of the world. It would mean the complete abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine; it would be a wicked blow to our prestige on the Pacific; and, moreover, it would be in its essence treason to the destiny of the Republic.

After Col. Roosevelt had finished there were cries of "Dolliver! Dolliver!" The Senator said:

"There have been three men in American history who have stated the central doctrine of our institutions so that all could understand. Thomas Jefferson gave us the doctrine of equal rights for all and special privileges for none. Abraham Lincoln re-stated this doctrine. It is a good Providence that in our time that doctrine has been stated again—the doctrine of a square deal."

The mention of the "square deal" brought forth a tremendous burst of applause from the people. Senator Dolliver concluded his speech by saying:

"In the next ten years the young men of the United States will see to it that the doctrine of a square deal is made true and is kept true for all time."

At the luncheon at the Field Club Col. Roosevelt spoke of millionaires whom he liked and millionaires whom he didn't like.

Mr. Roosevelt referred to his recent trip abroad and said that he had a feeling of friendliness for the countries he had visited even greater than before he had visited them. But I have come back feeling that there is no place in the world to live except in the United States. Col. Roosevelt said that there is a chance here for the average man such as there is not anywhere else. There is no place in the world, he pointed out, where the man does get to the top who has a chance to lead a life as attractive and full of interest in every way as in this country.

"Of course, if a man desires only to lead a life of pleasure, that is not a good country for it," he continued. "There is no good country for it where, for the simple reason that of all dismal careers the most dismal, the most empty, the least worth living from any standpoint, is the career of the man who sincerely devotes himself to his sole object of pleasure."

First, to devote themselves to pleasure as the sole object of life, is the surest way not to get it. Any man above that lowest strata, above the man merely seeking pleasure and enjoyment, can find here, as nowhere else in the world, an opportunity to help work out the great problems of the future, and any man who is worth his salt ought to feel the most supreme pleasure over the fact that he is given the opportunity to turn his hand to help work out these problems.

"Everywhere I went abroad I was interested in finding that the leading statesmen in the various countries were watching us and looking at what we were doing and were considering the different problems before us. They said that they were interested in us because the things we were doing today were the things they would have to do tomorrow or the day after. You are the pioneers in solving social problems in America and for the whole world. It is for you to solve these problems in the spirit of democracy. I need not say that that impresses a grave responsibility on us. Two other things impressed me. One was that the ordinary man, the man to whom life was pretty hard, was looking to us to realize the possibility of happiness on earth. The man who suffers injustice is looking toward this country as the place in which he would be free from the pressure of much injustice as the place where the ordinary man could have a chance in life."

"There is another side to this picture. Everywhere I went there was a certain astonishment, mixed with a much less pleasing feeling, over the accounts of business corruption in America. I think you will probably acquit me of any great admiration of the mere multi-millionaire at home. But I like him even less abroad. I want to call your attention, that I have said the word multi-millionaire. There are good men in every walk of life and the man who is a good American, who has done his duty and has a great fortune, is entitled to hearty respect and it is unworthy of anyone to deny him, if he deserves it."

"I am speaking of the same class of multi-millionaires of whom it was said 2,000 years ago that it was more difficult for them to get to heaven than for a camel to go through the eye of a needle. It is the rich man who trusts to his riches that I am speaking of, the multi-millionaire whose sole title to distinction is the fact that he is a multi-millionaire. Such a one is a poor citizen and is an objectionable American exhibit abroad. I was always ashamed when I saw that type of man accepted abroad as the typical American, and I felt even more ashamed when things happened here which gave the impression abroad that corruption in business, in politics, and lawlessness and brutal vice obtained here more than they did in any other country."

"Every active corruption in our business or political life and acts of violence by a mob is a blow at democracy; it is a blow at self-government. The mob in lynching a criminal puts itself on the same level of infamy that the criminal stands on. The big man of business who swindles the public or debauches a legislator, the grafting politician who blackmails a corporation, all are enemies of democracy and self-government. Reports of such corruption and lawlessness bring joy to the heart of every reactionary in Europe who waits to see self-government fail, and who is glad to see that government by the people on a large scale cannot be a success."

Col. Roosevelt spoke upon the need of honesty in political and private life.

Washington, August 30.—Former Governor Curtis Guild, Jr., of Massachusetts, called today at the State Department to receive his credentials as special ambassador of the United States to the Mexican Centennial of Independence. Together with the other commissioner appointed by the government to attend the celebration, Ambassador Guild will leave Washington tomorrow for Mexico City.

CHOATE DENIES CHARGES.

Brought Against Him Before American Bar Association. Stockbridge, Mass., September 2.—Joseph H. Choate, former ambassador to Great Britain, on being informed at his summer residence here today by the Associated Press, that George W. Chamlee had asked leave to withdraw his petition for consideration by parliament to receive his credentials as special ambassador of the United States to the Mexican Centennial of Independence. Together with the other commissioner appointed by the government to attend the celebration, Ambassador Guild will leave Washington tomorrow for Mexico City.

The charges of Mr. John R. Watts against me absolutely disavowed all responsibility for them. "I have never acted for Mr. Watts or had any knowledge of his affairs. So far as his charges against my former firm has heretofore come to my knowledge, I have investigated them and found them to be without foundation."

BIG ARO MEET BEGINS.

Englishman's First Flight in This Country—Aviators.

Boston, Sept. 2.—Heralded by the first night in this country of Claude Grahame-White, of England, in his Bleriot monoplane, and a short trip by Cromwell Dixon, of Kansas City, Mo., in his dirigible, today, everything was in readiness tonight for the opening of the first Harvard-Boston aero meet at Atlantic, in which many of the leading aviators of the world have entered for a nine days competition. Thousands of Bostonians swarmed the roofs for several hours this afternoon in anticipation of a sight to the city by Dixon, who was to take an invitation to the meet no Governor Draper and Mayor Fitzgerald. An east wind prevented Dixon from carrying out his purpose, and he circled the field only once.

While Dixon was in the air the Bleriot monoplane of Grahame-White was pushed on to the field, and the Englishman rose to a height of about 1,000 feet, heading out over the harbor toward Boston light. At this elevation, White made a circle of about four miles, swinging well over the harbor, and then to Dorchester. On his second round of the course, he dropped to a height of about 200 feet and hung close to the markers of the two mile course. Arriving in front of the grand stand, he alighted.

Grahame-White was in the air just six minutes, thus making his average speed close to a mile a minute. The meet will be officially opened at five o'clock tomorrow morning, when several aviators, including Clifford B. Harmon, of New York, Grahame-White of England, William H. Hillard and others, will make the first flights of the meet.

MOUNTAINS TO SEA

locate and survey the route and superintend the work. As to the material which is to go in the construction of the proposed highway he said that depended upon the different communities through which the road is to pass. He stated that the cost of the construction of the various kinds of roads was from $100 per mile up, and that no matter how simple a road is to be built it should be constructed under a highway engineer. He stated that under a competent engineer the revenue for the purpose of building the road would be expended more wisely. No controversy, he supposed, would be had concerning the location of the road but that the engineer could obviate all controversies on that point by being given full power to survey the route and locate the road where his judgment dictated.

After Dr. Pratt's address in which he also suggested the form which the organization should take and in accordance with his suggestion, Hon. J. A. Brown, of Columbus, moved that a committee on Ways and Means be appointed to take under advisement the proper steps to be taken to inaugurate this movement. The motion was adopted and thereupon the following committee was named: D. McEachern, New Hanover; J. A. Brown, Columbus; Robert Ruark, Brunswick; by request; J. W. Carter, Robeson; Dr. W. T. Tate, Scotland; W. N. Everett, Richmond; J. M. Fairley, Union; J. H. Ham, Mecklenburg; G. H. Currie, Bladen. On motion Dr. Pratt was added to the committee as an honorary member.

The convention adjourned at 1 P. M. and in the meantime the Ways and Means Committee met during the recess of the convention and elected J. A. Brown, of Columbus, chairman, and W. N. Everett, of Rockingham, secretary. The committee unanimously agreed upon the following report to be submitted to the convention:

Ninth: For the legislative committee the committee recommends: Geo. Pountre, Wilmington; A. S. Dockery, Rockingham; A. E. White, Lumberton; C. E. Taylor, Southport; E. H. Gibson, Laurinburg; W. B. Love, Monroe.

We, the committee, recommend that each member of the executive committee of this association form a local sub-committee to be composed of himself as chairman and one or more citizens from each township in his county through which the highway will or may pass, each of said townships to have an equal number of representatives on said committee, and such sub-committees shall report through the said member of the sub-committee to the executive committee of the association the route it deems most practicable for the highway to go through, with data as to the various routes considered. Then after receiving the reports of the said sub-committees and the road engineer, the executive committee of this association shall determine the route which the association shall follow.

At 3 P. M. the convention reassembled and after remarks by Col. Dockery, the chairman, the report of the committee as given above was adopted. The report of the committee was put by the Hon. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, and unanimously adopted.

Upon motion of Mr. H. W. Malloy, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the State should appropriate a sufficient amount to make it possible to give, through the Geological and Economic Survey (Highway Division) adequate road engineering to all the counties desiring it in the construction of their roads and bridges;

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the best use that can be made of the State convicts is in the construction of public roads, and that counties desiring same should have the first right to use them for this purpose. Provided, That they pay the State a stipulated amount per day for each convict, the State to bear all expenses of maintenance, care and guarding of convicts."

Upon motion of Mr. Brown, of Columbus, the thanks of the association was extended to the newspapers along the proposed highway for the valuable aid they have given to the project and to the people of Laurinburg for the handsome manner in which they have received and treated the delegates in attendance upon the meeting.

Greetings were received from J. W. Murrell, of Northwest townships, Brunswick county, regretting his failure to attend the meeting and pledging that his township will be ready to join in the movement to form a link in the highway. A telegram was received from Editor Jas. H. Cowan, of the Wilmington Dispatch, regretting his inability to attend and expressing his hearty sympathy in the movement and declaring that he would do all in his power for the highway.

While the convention was waiting for the report of the committee on Ways and Means, representatives of different counties made report and Mr. J. H. Ham, of Mecklenburg, said that his county had 11 miles of macadam road built toward Matthews and that it was within eight miles of the Union county line; work is now proceeding on that eight miles and it will be completed to the Union line by the first of January.

Mr. Allan, of Mecklenburg, delivered to the association a message from W. M. Long, chairman of the Board of Commissioners, of Mecklenburg, saying that Mecklenburg would be ready with her end of the road and inviting all the other counties to come along with the highway.

J. M. Fairley, of Union, reported that the roads from the Mecklenburg to the Anson county line, was in fair condition and though the work has been constructed without engineers it would not be long before the road in Union county would be completed from Mecklenburg to Anson.

W. W. Huntley, of Anson reported that the roads in his county were in fair condition to the Richmond line and that the rebuilding of ten miles would put his county ready for the highway.

Capt. W. L. Everett, of Richmond, stated that his county had 63 miles of good roads and that with some repairs his county would complete the highway to the Scotland county line.

Mr. John, of Scotland, reported splendid conditions in his county and believed with Dr. Pratt that the counties could save money by employing competent engineers to supervise the building of roads and bridges. He stated that Scotland had spent $15,000 for bridges and that engineers who came to inspect them had declared that the county had lost over $5,000 on account of faults in the work. He said that the improvements would be made to extend to the Robeson county line and that over the numerous streams excellent reinforced concrete arch bridges had been constructed.

R. D. Caldwell, of Robeson, stated that his county was enthusiastic over the highway and could be depended upon to connect up with Columbus.

J. A. Brown, of Columbus, declared that his county was enthusiastic over good roads and had recently completed 50 miles and that so far as connecting with the Wilmington to Charlotte highway, the repairing of about six miles of road would make the Columbus portion of its complete. He stated that causeways had been thrown up over the marshes and that every road through which the highway will pass is enthusiastic over it.

H. W. Malloy, of Wilmington, stated that New Hanover would not contribute any portion of the road for the reason that Brunswick is opposite Wilmington and that 12 miles through Brunswick had been completed.

Mr. Malloy explained that the road would come through Northwest townships and that it could be placed in passable condition in 60 days.

Mr. Rountree reported enthusiastically concerning the goods road in New Hanover and stated that good roads now extend to every section of the county. As far as the Wilmington to Charlotte highway is concerned, he was ready to report, after conference with President Taylor, of the Chamber of Commerce, would do her best to secure a free ferry over the Cape Fear into Wilmington.

Col. Dockery stated that the bridge over the Pee Dee river between Anson and Richmond counties was a matter depending upon the completion of the dam at Hewitt Falls, but he could assure the convention that Anson and Richmond will have a bridge or a ferry over the Pee Dee. President Dockery called on the Hon. R. N. Page, member of Congress, and Mr. Page responded in a speech in which he declared himself a strong advocate of good roads. He agreed with Dr. Pratt that highway engineers should be employed on all road building enterprises. He was glad to see the great movement in North Carolina in favor of better rural highways. "We are going to have better highways," he declared, "and the great subject of transportation through the country is now one of the most important in the State." He said that his county of Moore had built from 50 to 60 miles of sand clay roads as fine as any in the State and that they had been principally built by private subscription at a cost not exceeding $300 per mile.

Mr. J. T. John, Jr., of Scotland, announced that automobiles were in waiting and when the convention adjourned the delegates were invited to take an excursion over 15 miles of the roads of Scotland. About that time, however, a heavy rain fell and it was decided that the program had to be abandoned. After discussion of the highway plans in a general way the association at 4:15 P. M. adjourned subject to call of the president.

HARMON ORDERS INQUIRY.

Into the Street Car Strike at Columbus—Hunt Dynamiter.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Governor Harmon by letter today called upon Attorney General Denman to take up a grand jury probe of the Columbus street car strike as he did in the grand jury investigation of the Newark lynching.

Denman is now at Lakeland, Mich. His assistant said tonight that the department would begin the work as soon as Denman returned. Nothing can be done before the grand jury, however, until the next term of court, beginning September 19th.

Governor Harmon issued a statement in which he declined to call on the Columbus Railway & Light Company to arbitrate the strike, as requested by State labor leaders. The Governor gave out a proclamation in which he urged the people of the State to attend the State Fair now in work, assuring them of "perfect safety."

The search for Alfred Strader, the suspected dynamiter for whom rewards have been offered, continued today and tonight without result. Since he was fired upon yesterday by deputy sheriffs and captured, there have been no explosions under cars.

In his letter to Attorney General Denman, Governor Harmon, after referring to "the intolerable conditions existing at Columbus," Governor Harmon directs that the grand jury which has been summoned for the 19th inst. give "immediate attention to the violations of the law, who have so signally disgraced the capital." The Governor requests that the grand jury make sweeping investigations of all crime connected with the pending street car trouble.

"Let the investigation be swift, thorough and sure, and all the resources of the State will be at your back."

"Special attention is directed to dynamite outrages. No mercy should be shown the terrorist who, lacking the courage of the mob and rioters, skulks in dark places, sets his deadly stuff and then hides himself to await the explosion with fiendish glee."
